

AWARD WINNING TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Sunday, February 16, 4:30-6:30

WHY ARE THESE PROGRAMS NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS?

Session Sponsored by PDS-SIG

Appetizers & Refreshments provided

After presentations join us for a short PDS- SIG meeting

- ◆ Sign up for manuscript publications
- ◆ Discuss and vote on proposed new purpose for PDS SIG

Joan Maier-Ickes, SIG Chair
cjm015@shsu.edu
Janice Nath, SIG Past Chair
nathj@uhd.edu
Ron Beebe, Session Facilitator
beeber,@uhd.edu

Presenters

Diane Corrigan, Clinical Associate Professor and MUST Program Coordinator

Cleveland State University

Matt Seimears, Associate Chair of Elementary,
Early Childhood and Special Education

Emporia State University

Jill Donnel, Administrative Director of Student Teaching & Gloria Jameson, Site Coordinator

Illinois State University

Sue Brown, Associate Professor of Mathematics

University of Houston- Clear Lake.

These programs received one or more of the following awards and recognitions: ATE Distinguished Teacher Education Program, AACTE Christa McAuliffe Award for Excellence in Teacher Education, AACTE Best Practice Award for Collaboration with Community Colleges, AERA PDS-SIG Balach Research Award; NAPDS Exemplary PDS Program Award, Holmes Partnership Nancy Zimpher Award for Best Partnership, CREATE –Texas Outstanding Field Experience Program Award, one of four “Exemplary Model Teacher Education Programs” (Levine, 2006), and one of ten teacher education programs “blazing the trail for better practices” in the United States (George Lucas Foundation, 2010).